MOSMAN PARK ARE FAVOURERED TO WIN FLAG

Today will see the climax of the 1984 WAFA season when Mosman Park and Melville clash in the grand final at Fremantle Oval.

It has been these two teams that have played the most consistent football during the season and there is no doubt that the competition's two strongest teams will be meeting in today's big encounter.

Melville surged into the grand-final with a strong victory over Southern Port-Hamilton in last Sunday's preliminary final.

After an even first quarter, Melville broke away to a five goal lead at half-time and then gradually increased their lead and eventually won by 12 goals.

It was a fine return to form by Melville after their disappointing performance against Mosman Park in the second semi-final. But their victory last week may prove to be costly with doubt over the fitness of defenders Peter Greaney and Alan Burn, and rover Dave Cox. Greaney has a bruised kidney,

Burn a nagging knee injury and Cox sustained concussion last week. However its expected that all three will take their place in the Melville Line-up today.

It's crucial that Greaney plays for Melville. He has played some of his best football against Mosman Park this season when lining-up against full-forward David Harvey.

Harvey is a key player for Mosman Park in attack and Melville will want their no one defender to keep close guard on the dangerous sharpshooter.

Mosman Park must start this game as favourites. they are a very strong combination and have shown in recent encounters between these two teams that they are able to exploit Melville's weaknesses.

It's certain that Mosman Park will be physically aggressive early in the game to try and assert their authority over Melville. If Melville are to win. they must take-up the physical challenge and at the same time play their normal fast play-on stly of football.

Mosman Park have a very powerful ruck with Richard Strauss and Mark Lane, lining-up against Melville's talented duo of Noel Cooper and Paul Lyons.

Mosman Park should have the edge at the centre bounce-downs, with ruck-rovers Ian Earl and Gavin Hambley. Both are strong players and highly accomplished at performing under big match pressure.

To match the talents of Earl and Hambley at bouncedowns Melville must get full value from rovers Kevin Regan and Dave Cox, and centreman Geoff Truscott.

Regan and Cox were damaging players last week on the ball, while Truscott was a winner in the centre. Today Truscott will line-up against Barry Haydinger in what promises to be an outstanding clash.

Both teams have strong centre-lines, but the winner of the Truscott-Haydinger duel will almost certainly give his team mid-field ascendancy — a crucial factor today.

Both sides are also strong in defence and scoring for forwards from both teams, will be very difficult.

It's difficult to select a winner of this clash, but Mosman Park have produced the necessary qualities to win big games at the right time of the season and they should do the same today.

Mosman Park Are Set To Celebrate

Win or lose, grand final night will be held at the David Jones Pavillion. So come on along and rock on till midnight.

Sunday 21 st October is the date for the vote count for all sides. Commencing at 11.00a.m. and followed by an old players match starting at 2.00p.m. It should be a good day so come along and see some "Old Style Footy".

The Annual Wind-up of the Mossies has been set for the 10th November. All members will be contacted regards final details.

Good luck to our boys in today's. We know you will be trying your best for the club.

THE RAMS ARE CONFIDENT OF VICTORY

Congratulations to both our league and reserves teams on making the grand final today. To our league coach Tony Micale our thanks for the pro way you have led the team, and to Dad's Army, well what can we say -Great going guys.

It has been a good year, however a double today will see our President Col Richardson and his committee well rewarded for all their hard work. To all our loyal band of workers, our heartfelt thanks. To our players, good luck and success today. Lets build a better club on these victories and celebrate in style tonight.

MELVILLE LEAGUE COACH
TONY MICALE

Secretarys Message

Today brings a close to the 1984 season for our Association.

The season has not been an easy one with reformation, but with considerable effort by all participating clubs a tight competition occurred, particularly from the top sides.

To those officials responsible, the Association Executive takes this opportunity to thank you for this effort.

The matter of concern is naturally the lack of colts sides. While our clubs had difficulty in fielding sides we are certainly not alone with this problem. It is a major worry to all other leagues. It is imperative to keep the youth of today in the game we all want to see continue and develop.

The Association has made overtures for other clubs to join, as we as a league cannot afford the luxury of byes and forfeits. An effort from all personnel is asked. Mr Ron Beaver is currently working on this to ensure a strong and united W.A.F.A.

To the clubs participating in today's Grand Final, I wish them every success however in any final there can only be one winner. It has been an extremely good effort to have made the day and my congratulations are offered.

To the major award winners of the season;

Elastoplast Shield: Southern Port-Hamilton, British Paints Medal: Kevin Regan, Bali Sunset Holiday Winner: Sam Maskos, FAI— Car Owners Mutual Leading Goalkicker: Kevin Regan, R.E. Beaver Medal: Neil Bruce and the Fairest & Best Colts: D. Bilicich.

Congratulations on excellent performances throughout the season, and to our Sponsors our very sincere thanks.

To the team of umpires. Once again they provided excellent performances despite some difficulties. "Budgie" Rowe has shown his ability to mould a fine team together and all have been very loyal to the progress of the Association. One could say today's Grand final is being handled by the vetrans — Bruce Wainwright and Wally Tyler. Congrats Fellas!

Finally to the P & D Board members who unfortunately have been called upon far too regularly this season, I Offer my sincere thanks for their attendance and officiating this duty. Good luck to all players and club members. we look forward to your continued support in the coming year.
